

Welcome to The Hop Yard American Alehouse and Grill.

The original Hop Yard is located on what was once the largest hop farm in the world. From the 1880's to the beginning of World War I, the Pleasanton Hop Company operated on nearly 1900 acres of swampy marshland along what is now Hopyard Road. They were forced to dismantle the hop yards around 1913, thus ending Pleasanton's reign as a world famous hop producing region.

We have tried to recapture some of our local heritage here at The Hop Yard by creating a simple place, reminiscent of simpler times, for friends to gather and enjoy themselves.

So please, enjoy our new menu inspired by The Beer Chef, Bruce Paton, and enjoy some of the many unique craft beers available on tap.

Cheers!
